

I am totally opposed to allowing telemarketers to bypass Tennessee's laws concerning telemarketing calls to an individual's home. They have no right to use a phone that I pay for to try and sell me junk that I don't want, or to try and get donations for any purpose. I feel that I, and only I, can decide the uses of my telephone.